

January 18, 1973

this morning will be entered in the official Legislative Journal. The chair would observe that this sure beats going to school the regular way, doesn't it. And additionally, we have in the north balcony, I think, seated 44 8th and 10th grade students from Humphrey High School of Humphrey, Nebraska. Teachers are James Soucha and John Miller. We are very pleased to have you visitors today to the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. We hope you enjoy your visit to Lincoln and to one of the ten outstanding architectural achievements of the world. Very good. Do we have any further business on the desk?

CLERK: Mr. President, notice of committee hearings. Read. Mr. President, one new bill. Read title. LB 246. That is all Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Are there any other motions on the desk?

CLERK: None.

SPEAKER: Any other business? Any other business from the body? Does anyone care to discuss a possible motion for adjournment? The chair recognizes Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I move we adjourn. What time is the Governor going to address the body?

SPEAKER: 11 o'clock.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I move we adjourn until 11 o'clock tomorrow. 10:45. Now if somebody wants to amend that go ahead if you think we ought to take care of the other business first or afterwards, why that's your prerogative. Let's make it 10 o'clock. That will give us time to take care of the business we have.

SPEAKER: Pardon me, sir. 10 o'clock.

SENATOR CARPENTER: 10 o'clock.

SPEAKER: Thank you. Is there any other business to come before the body? Motion is to adjourn until 10 o'clock Friday. All those in favor of the motion please say aye, those opposed say no. So ordered, we are adjourned until 10 o'clock, Friday.
